

PEOPLE TALKING

A Short Story Competition with A Twist In The Tale

The challenge is to write a monologue, a performance piece for one voice, which is set in or refers to Bognor Regis.

The piece should not be more than 800 words in length and the closing date for entries is Monday 20th May 2024.

If writers wish to submit their monologues as video performances, that would be welcomed.

Send scripts or recordings to irecampbell@aol.co.uk

(Organiser Irene Campbell)

The top six entries selected by the judges will be read – and the winner announced at an event in The Regis School of Music at 6.00pm on Sunday 7th July 2024, when the winning entries will be performed by

Jean Rogers

(the actress famous for her work on ‘Emmerdale’ and so much more).

The panel of judges will include author Simon Brett, Jason Passingham, Heygates Bookshop and Connor Gormley, Bognor Regis journalist .

There will be three prizes of £100, £50 And £25, sponsored by members of the Bognor Regis Heritage and Arts Partnership

The top six entries will be posted on the Bognor Regis Heritage website
